NIFTY CHART

Index opened and closed below its 5 DEMA currently placed at 10815. Index breached below gap support of 10780 briefly closing almost at the support levels. Daily RSI closed below its 9 EMA and a move back above the average will lead to sharp move on the upside like once noticed from recent lows of 10488 on 26th Nov. 200 & 20 DEMA are placed in close proximity around 10700 levels that would act as strong support in case of move lower in coming sessions while on the flipside breach and close above 5 DEMA placed at 10815 could accelerate move on the upside till 11089 & 11140 levels. Positional longs should be held maintaining trend stop at 10488 while traders could long the index on breach above 5 DEMA of 10815 with stops placed below 200 DEMA of 10700
