NIFTY CHART

1-Nifty 50 - 06/12/17

Nifty continued to slip for yet another session as it ended its 7th consecutive session on a bearish note. The index slipped below the Doji formation post the announcement of the RBI monetary policy as the aggregate pressure was created by rate sensitive stocks viz Banks, Financial & Auto. The only silver lining as of now is the emerging positive divergence on the 60 min RSI which could provide some temporary relief for bullish traders. Though the broader trend support remains near 9940 a small relief rally towards 10160 -10210 zone cannot be ruled out due to the oversold state indicated by the intraday parameters. Key supports for traders in the coming days are placed at 10028 /9995 while significant resistance are placed near 10160 /10210.
