NIFTY CHART

Nifty has commenced the week on a strong footing as it opened above the apex (9950) of the contracting range in which it had oscillated during its past 3 weeks. The broad based participation compliments the setup & the ongoing momentum could see the index scale above its current life high placed around 10138. The momentum could only be distorted in case 10030 is breached from hereon & hence serves as a trail stop for trading momentum. We expect the index to register fresh life high near 10260-10350 zone soon.
